

FEW KNOW ABOUT THE SHAKERS OF MOUNT LEBANON.

We do not believe in their peculiar religious views. We cannot enter into the spirit of their scruples, and therefore we don't get into their habits of life.

It is not necessary to believe as they do, nor to act as they do; but we can and do respect the honesty of purpose, both far as the six principles are concerned and their world-wide benefits.

Almost every prominent man has some one specialty in which he excels, especially if he has dedicated his life to its study and development.

In one particular the Shakers excel above all others and all other men or classes of men. Thus is in the cultivation of medicinal herbs and plants. They have made this a study for more than one hundred years. They are also expert in extracting from them their peculiar green and medicinal virtues.

This is their peculiar industry. Their lives have been devoted to it. By it they are supported. They excel in this branch as do the monks of olden days. Benedictine with their famous liqueur.

Now, this lifelong study on the part of the Shakers has not been in vain. They have accomplished much good. Their medicinal extracts and cordials are known throughout the world.

The Shaker Digestive Cordial is probably the most successful article ever given to the public. It is not a cure for all diseases; it does not pretend to be, but one among them will cure, and that is indigestion. It is not pretended that it will cure anything else, and a sufferer has not long to wait to see the result.

Almost the first dose will give relief, and, if continued, a permanent cure will follow. The Shaker motto is "To try all things and return to the one which is good." For this reason the Shakers have put into the hands of the retail druggists who sell their Digestive Cordial small bottles, which can be had for ten cents each, so that for this small sum the reader can know if the Digestive Cordial is adapted to his case.

THE NORFOLK ART LEAGUE

Organized to Stimulate Interest and Give Advantages.

A DISTINGUISHED ARTIST.

Miss Jennie Delony Rice, Instructor of the Class in Oil Painting. The Work is Progressing Satisfactorily.

While Norfolk is making substantial progress in the useful arts or the industrial operations for supplying the common necessities of life, it is a matter of congratulation that the fine arts are not being neglected and THE VIRGINIAN finds in Norfolk an organization which is doing much to cultivate the eye and the hand of those who aspire to distinction with the painter's brush. Some weeks ago the Art League was organized and a studio fitted up in the Haddington Building. This much desired institution received notice through the press at the time, but of its work since the public know little. The society was formed for the purpose of stimulating interest and organizing to give genius thirsting for instruction the best advantages for the least possible money. Consequently the membership was divided into two classes, active and honorary. The active members pay dues of 50 cents per month. The honorary members pay nothing.

To compensate the active members for their contributions, which support the League, classes have been formed to teach the members free of charge. These classes meet weekly and a member can join any one of them and be taught pen-drawing, water color and oil painting, etc., and receive instruction from Mrs. Deloney Rice, Miss Hendren, Miss Corley, Miss Denby or Mr. Mitchell, who have charge of the classes.

These artists are all well known to the readers of THE VIRGINIAN, with possibly Mrs. Rice, as the exception. Mrs. Rice came to Norfolk some months ago because she understood it was a good field for her specialty portrait painting. To a representative of THE VIRGINIAN Mrs. Rice states that she is much pleased with Norfolk. She is a distinguished graduate and studied in Europe. Her picture of Jefferson Davis in the State Capitol of Arkansas, for which the State paid her a nice round sum, made her fame.

In acknowledging the receipt of the picture the legislative committee said: "In the name of the people of the South let me thank you for the work. Your name is written as the artist of Arkansas."

Mrs. Rice is very proud of this picture. She is now making portraits of a number of prominent Norfolk people, but says that most of her orders are from the West. In addition to her duties with the League class as instructor of oil painting and her special orders, she finds time to instruct a class in Norfolk College for Young Ladies. Mrs. Rice has the good fortune to have made her reputation before coming to Norfolk.

Mrs. Rice has much hope for the development of art here, and says that Norfolk already has many amateur artists who will, in after years, take high rank. The Art League is prosecuting its work industriously and with a high degree of satisfaction.

of the physical constitution often comes from unnatural pernicious habits, contracted through ignorance or from excesses. Loss of many power, nervous exhaustion, nervous debility, impaired memory, low spirits, irritable temper, and a thousand and one derangements of mind and body, result from such reckless self-indulgence.

To reach, reclaim and restore such unfortunate to health and happiness, is the aim of the publishers of a book, written in plain but chaste language, on the nature, symptoms and curability, by home treatment, of such diseases. This book will be sent sealed, in plain envelope, on receipt of this notice with ten cents in stamps, to pay postage.

Real Estate and Rental Agent.

Attention is called to the card of Mr. John A. Lesser, who has opened a real estate and rental office at No. 635 Church street extended, or, more properly speaking, in Humperville. Mr. Lesser is well known to the community and will doubtless succeed in his new venture. He promises close collections and prompt returns. He has a number of houses for rent and some property for sale on the installment plan.

Real Estate Assessments.

One of the assessors of real estate called on THE VIRGINIAN yesterday and said that the valuation of Main street property would not be from $500 to $1,000 a front foot, but would be $500 at the highest. The assessor says they are very carefully examining the property and will endeavor to avoid doing injustice to any one, and believe their valuation will, as rule,
